

Guidelines for Submission
Music Scoring for Visual Media MM Thesis
Updated September 7, 2021

This applies to the MM in music scoring for visual media thesis. The document must also conform to the department's notational guidelines found here. The Style Guidelines page provides a template in the form of a Sample Document.

1. General observations
 - 1.1. Document should be in PDF/A format. (Info on PDF/A is available at this grad office page)
2. *Title page (required)*¹
 - 2.1. This should be the first page of the document.
 - 2.2. No page number (though this is considered page i).
 - 2.3. Title centered, all upper-case
 - 2.4. Entire page is centered both horizontally and vertically. Format and spacing should follow Sample Document.
 - 2.5. "Submitted..." statement at bottom lists the correct degree and expected month/year of graduation (i.e., May, July/August, December).
3. Blank Page (required)
 - 3.1. With lower-case "ii" centered at bottom.
4. *Approval page (required)*²
 - 4.1. Entire page should be centered vertically.
 - 4.2. No title on page.
 - 4.3. "Accepted by..." text centered. Format and spacing should follow Sample Document.
 - 4.4. Page numbering continues here with lower-case roman numeral iii, centered at bottom.
 - 4.5. Use one 3.25"-long signature line for the director of the thesis. The line and name below them should be right justified. Omit titles (e.g., Prof., Dr.), but include the role, "Director of Thesis".
5. Blank page (required)
 - 5.1. Lower-case "iv" centered at bottom.
6. Actual title page
 - 6.1. Page number "v" centered at bottom.
7. Instrumentation (required)
 - 7.1. Page numbering continues (lower-case roman numerals).
8. Performance information (optional)
 - 8.1. Page numbering continues (lower-case roman numerals).

² If using electronic submission, the page submitted as part of the document must remain unsigned. For bound paper submission, include signed copies on appropriate paper with the bound copies.

9. Program notes (required)

- 9.1. Your document must include program notes, with a minimum length of 250 words. These notes should be written for a general audience; they should not involve a detailed analysis, but should prepare an educated layperson for a performance of the work.
- 9.2. Page numbering continues (lower-case roman numerals).

10. Text (required if composition is vocal and employs a text)

- 10.1. The text should be given in its original format. Extensive text may require additional pages.
- 10.2. If the text is under copyright, a statement of permission from the copyright holder should appear below the text.
- 10.3. Page numbering continues (lower-case roman numerals).

11. Dedication, inscription, information about premiere

- 11.1. Page numbering continues (lower-case roman numerals).

12. Blank page as needed to ensure that page 1 of body of document is on the right when printed

- 12.1. Page numbering continues (lower-case roman numerals).

13. Body of document

- 13.1. The first page of the score should have the work's title centered in the space above the uppermost staff.
- 13.2. The composer's name should be printed above the uppermost staff, against the right margin.
- 13.3. Copyright information (optional, but encouraged) should be printed below the lowest staff.
- 13.4. Page numbering restarts using Arabic numerals and the format "page #".
- 13.5. Omit the page number on the first page of the score.
- 13.6. Second page of score, "page 2"; continue numbering pages at bottom center.
