

Jacobs School of Music — Indiana University
Criminal Activity Disclosure

The Jacobs School of Music is committed to maintaining a safe learning environment. As part of that commitment, we require applicants and students returning after an interruption of study who have been charged with or convicted of a misdemeanor or felony, or who have engaged in behavior that resulted in mental or physical injury to person(s) or personal property (including for example, but not limited to, behavior that led to a restraining order against you), to disclose that information. A previous conviction or previous conduct of the sort identified here would not automatically preclude admission to IU but does require review. You must provide a brief explanation, including location (city, state, and country) of conviction or problematic conduct, along with dates and court disposition. This information must be provided in English. Your signature on this form gives Indiana University permission to access pertinent criminal records.
